

NAVA ONTI

ABOUT

Nava Onti is a musician based in San Jose, CA.

Watching him perform a song with elements of Brazillian Funk and Progressive Rock at a hardcore show, it becomes clear that his music is hard to describe with a genre. Experimental electronic rap is a good start.

With energetic vocals laid over instrumentals assembled from forgotten sci-fi records and European guitar demos, he performs with an intensity that is hard to forget.

His upcoming EP, "Black Iron Prison," dives deeper into the exploration of varying genres and emotions.
